Read this passage about the Ajanta Caves. Then answer the questions.
The Ajanta Caves were built in ancient India. They had been forgotten until British officer John Smith rediscovered them in the early nineteenth century. They are famous for their breathtaking art in the form of sculptures and detailed murals. The artworks draw inspiration from the life of Buddha, the 5 Jataka tales and the teachings in Buddhist myths and philosophy. There are about 30 caves at Ajanta which include prayer halls for meditation, viharas or quarters for monks and halls with stupas or chaityas where people would gather together to worship. It is an amazing achievement of

INTRODUCTION FOR ONLINE CLASSES Online teaching is the process of educating others on virtual platforms. This type of teaching involves live classes video conferencing webinars and other online tools.
The online applications are developed and designed to facilitate easy learning and better understanding.
The advancement in technology has improved the quality of distance education and increased the trend of e-learning.
Online tutors and learners are becoming comfortable with computers and the internet. It is helping them to create a better virtual learning environment.
Teaching online requires strong network connectivity and a computing device system.
